

NATIONAL ADVERB DAY

Ode to Adverbs by Punky Jones

Where would rain be without adverbs?

Tell me, where would it be?

Sure it would tap on the roof while you nap

But it couldn't tap rhythmically

Where would sheep be without adverbs?

Tell me, where would they be?

Sure they could bleat to the sheep that they meet

But they couldn't bleat sheepishly

Where would brains be without adverbs?

Tell me, where would they be?

Sure they could think just as fast as a wink

But they couldn't think logically
