

Review

NATIONAL ADVERB DAY

A noun is a person, place, thing, or idea.

Example: The cat . . .
noun

An adjective describes a noun.

Example: The fat cat . . .
adjective

An action verb expresses an action.

Example: The fat cat jumped.
action verb

An adverb describes an action verb.

Example: The fat cat jumped savagely.
adverb

An adverb can describe an adjective too.

Example: The really fat cat jumped savagely.
adverb

An adverb can describe another adverb too.

Example: The really fat cat jumped extremely savagely.
adverb

Adverbs

Note: many adverbs end in -ly.

Go team!

